Welcome

Dear Friends,

Greetings from Jabalpur,

It is a matter of great pride and honour for the Jabalpur Chapter of ISSP for Jabalpur being chosen as the venue for the 39th ISSPCON Conference to be held from 7th to 9th February 2025, with a pre-conference workshop to be organized on 6th February 2025. The Jabalpur Chapter of ISSP is enlivened and hopped up to host you.

During the course of 39th ISSPCON Conference, 2025, it shall be our endeavor to ensure that you are provided with a platform to familiarize with the national and international standards of Pain practices prevailing globally in this promising and ever-evolving discipline of pain medicine. Keeping this intention at heart, it was decided that “Way to go to achieve global pain standards”, shall be the central theme at the 39th ISSPCON Conference, 2025.

The Scientific Program shall be updated in advance, by June, 2024, which shall enable delegates to share their queries and doubts with respect to the topics at isspcon25@gmail.com. The selected speakers at 39th ISSPCON Conference, 2025, shall be addressing the august gathering with the sole objective to clear the doubts raised by our participants on email. The pre – conference workshop shall be graced by the presence of National & Inter National established and successful practitioners of pain medicine who have earned an impeccable professional reputation amongst peers and the society at large. Such practitioners shall guide all participants on how to deal with complex and difficult pain procedures while also providing inputs on how to procure the most suitable equipments at affordable prices.

Jabalpur was chosen as the venue for the 39th ISSPCON Conference for its rich and diverse heritage and history. Fondly called as the “Sanskaardhaani”, Jabalpur is blessed to be thriving and growing on the banks of holy river Narmada, which holds religious and historical significance in the hearts of all residents of Jabalpur. From Bhedaghat to the Balancing Rock, Jabalpur offers several tourist attractions that provide you with a lifetime of memories to cherish. The boating experience at Bhedaghat and the cruise at Bargi Dam deserve a special mention for nature lovers. Jabalpur is also the focal point for wildlife enthusiasts, who find comfort in Jabalpur being surrounded by several National Parks like Kanha, Bandhavgarh, Panna, Pench and Satpura, to name a few, which inhabit the beautiful and famous Indian tigers. Jabalpur is also known for its food which offers various popular street food dishes, especially, ‘khove ki jalebi’.

We would also like to take this opportunity to remind our participants that they shall be showered with the same warmth and hospitality which they were met with during the Silver Jubilee Pain Conference in 2010.

Warm regards
Team ISSPCON, 2025

Host City – Jabalpur

Jabalpur (formerly Jubbulpore) is a tier 2 city situated on the banks of the holy Narmada River in Madhya Pradesh, India. According to the 2011 census, it is the third-largest urban agglomeration in Madhya Pradesh and the country's 37th-largest urban agglomeration. Jabalpur is an important Administrative, Industrial, and Business centre of Madhya Pradesh. It is a major education hub in India. The Madhya Pradesh High Court and other important Administrative Headquarters of India.

Jabalpur is the administrative headquarters of Jabalpur district (the second-most-populous district in Madhya Pradesh) and the Jabalpur division. The city is known for the marble rocks on the river Narmada at Bhedaghat. Jabalpur is one of the most populated cities in the state, located at a major road and rail junction. The city is a military headquarters, containing the central gun-carriage factory, an ordnance factory, and an ammunition depot.

It is known from archaeological evidence that a highly sophisticated urbanized culture—the Indus civilization—dominated the north-western part of the subcontinent from about 2600 to 2000 BCE. From that period on, India functioned as a virtually self-contained political and cultural arena, which gave rise to a distinctive tradition that was associated primarily with Hinduism, the roots of which can largely be traced to the Indus civilization.

Places to visit in host city

Dhuandhar Falls

The Dhuandhar Falls are located on Narmada River in Bhedaghat and are 30 meters high. The Narmada River, making its way through the world-famous Marble Rocks, narrows down and then plunges in a waterfall known as Dhuandhaar. The plunge, which creates a bouncing mass of mist, is so powerful that its roar is heard from a far distance.

Marble Rocks

The Marble Rocks is an area along the Narmada river in central India near the city of Jabalpur; in Bhedaghat of Jabalpur District, in the state of Madhya Pradesh. The river has carved the soft marble, creating a beautiful gorge of about 8 km in length. It is a popular Indian tourist destination.

Balancing Rocks

Balancing Rocks in Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, is a sheer geological marvel in the true sense. Located on the way to the Madan Mahal Fort, which was built by Raja Madan Singh, a Gond ruler, Balancing Rocks is a rocky formation of uneven rocks, which is said to be created by volcanic eruptions thousands of years ago.

Kachnar City Shiva Temple

The Kachnar City is well known for the tourist attraction and religious destination for the locals and the people from abroad because of the tallest statue of Lord Shiva which was built in the year 2004 and was made available for the public, tourists and the devotees from 15 February 2006. These 12 Lingam has been collected from various shrines of Lord Shiva throughout the country.

Dumna Nature Reserve

The Dumna Nature Reserve of Jabalpur Municipal Corporation is spread over nearly 1800 acres of forested land on a plateau, about 40 meters above Jabalpur town. It was transferred to the Municipal Committee of Jubbulpore by the provincial government to act as the catchment area for the Khandari lake.
